Notes from gathering feedback:

Pro Tip:

Be specific with the questions you ask when you are looking for feedback so that you get feedback that will actually help you.

Mix it up...

- For ages 4-6 - Parents could help kids consider what questions to ask to get the most useful feedback and also offer to take notes.
- For ages 7-9 - Gather feedback from at least three different people and see how the feedback is similar or different. What themes did you notice?
