

Finding the Right School for You (and Your Kids) School Visit Guide

School Name:

Type of School:

Initial thoughts about the school/information to remember:

Watch the Children
Signs that all children are engaged
Indications of challenging work
Role of the teacher
Students' reaction to your arrival
Values cultivated

Reflections from watching the children:

Talk to the students
What are you doing right now and why?
Do you learn a lot every day?
Does this class stay busy or waste a lot of time?
If you don't understand something, what do you do?

Reflections from talking to the students:

Listen to the parents
School's weakness
How current parents are involved
Role of academic resilience

Reflections from listening to the parents:

Questions for the principal
How do you choose your teachers?
How do you make your teachers better?
How do you measure your success?
How are behavioral challenges addressed?
How do you make sure every student is being supported and challenged?

Reflections from asking the principal questions:

Miscellaneous reflections from the visit:

General Post-Visit Reflection Questions:

Questions I still have:

Will my child be safe?

Will my child be valued and feel valued?

How does this school feel?

Will I be happy being a part of this community?

For more tips on finding the right school, visit einsteinacademyco.org/finding-the-right-school